Division II National Champions

Peter Lue (plue@d.umn.edu)
Camp Director

Peter Lue is entering his 12th season with the University of Minnesota Duluth, helping the Bulldogs achieve 2 National Championships. Coach Lue is no stranger to success, appearing in two National Championships while playing for Division III powerhouse Rowan University. In 2016, all 5 of UMD's offensive lineman received NSIC Honors. Peter Bateman, starting left tackle for 50 straight games, was named an All-American and was a 2016 Gene Upshaw Award finalist (Outstanding Lineman in Division II). In 2012, Coach Lue coached senior offensive lineman Garth Heikkinen, a 4-year starter who won the Gene Upshaw Award. Coach Lue continues to garner the respect of fellow O-Line coaches throughout the Midwest. He is a "hands on" coach that makes sure each of his offensive linemen are sound fundamentally and schematically.

Trey Dill (ttdill@d.umn.edu)
Assistan Coach Defensive Line

Trey Dill is entering his 7th season at UMD where he'll once again supervise UMD's first line of defense. Coach Dill previously served a two-season appointment as the inside linebackers coach at in-state rival St. Cloud State University and helped groom a pair of all-NSIC performers during his time with the Huskies. Since 2011, he has developed a defensive line that has 12 all-conference selections, 3 all-region performers, and 2 All-Americans.
